DETERMINATION

[Untimely]

After completing a review of your request for noncharging, it was determined that your request was untimely. Your request was not received within 15 days of the date that the form was mailed to you. Therefore, your request was disallowed.

[Ineligible Reason - Any reason not listed on NCUI 551]

The Notice of Initial Claim and Potential Charges to Your Account (NCUI 551) listed the reasons for requesting noncharging that are covered by Section 96-11.3. of North Carolina Employment Security Law. The reason you indicated for requesting noncharging is not covered by the noncharging provisions of the law.

[Ineligible Reason - Change in Business Ownership]

You indicated in your request for noncharging that the claimant separated due to a change in ownership of the business. This separation reason is considered as resulting from lack of work and is not covered by the noncharging provisions of Section 96-11.3. of the North Carolina Employment Security Law. Therefore, your request for noncharging is disallowed.
