DETERMINATION OF FEDERAL MILITARY SERVICE

Based on Chapter 85, Title 5, U S Code, you are not eligible to receive unemployment compensation for Ex-Service members (UCX) because (variable - from UCX table separation reasons; we want the reason in bold).

This determination was based on information obtained from your DD214, "Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty". Such Findings as reported by the branch of military service on DD 214/215 or in response to a request by a state are "final and conclusive" for the purposes of State Employment Security Agencies in making Unemployment Compensation for Ex-Servicemembers (UCX) determinations.

If you believe that any of the military separation information upon which your determination was based is incorrect or substantially incomplete, you may request reconsideration directly from your branch of service at the following address:

Variable
NAME OF BRANCH OF SERVICE
ADDRESS 1
CITY, STATE ZIP

If you pursue reconsideration with your branch of service, continue to file your weekly certifications and meet eligibility requirements. If reconsideration results in an amended DD214/215, please contact the UCX unit directly at 919.707.1268.
