MEMORANDUM OF LAW:

The Employment Security Law of North Carolina provides that an individual is disqualified for any remaining benefits if the Division determines that the individual has failed, without good cause, to do one or more of the following:

- (1) Apply for available suitable work when so directed by the employment office of the Division.
- (2) Accept suitable work when offered.
- (3) Return to the individual's customary self-employment when so directed by the Division.

N.C. Gen. Stat. § 96-14.11(b).

The Division's determination of whether an employment offer is suitable must vary based upon the individual's length of unemployment as follows:

- (1) During the first 10 weeks of a benefit period, the Division may consider all of the following:
 - a. The degree of risk involved to the individual's health, safety, and morals.
 - b. The individual's physical fitness and prior training and experience.
 - c. The individual's prospects for securing local work in the individual's customary occupation.
 - d. The distance of the available work from the individual's residence.
 - e. The individual's prior earnings.
- (2) During the remaining weeks of a benefit period, the Division must consider any employment offer paying one hundred twenty percent (120%) of the individual's weekly benefit amount to be suitable work.

N.C. Gen. Stat. § 96-14.9(f).

CONCLUSION OF LAW:

In the present case, any controverted evidence was resolved by making findings of fact based on competent and credible evidence presented at the hearing.

The undersigned concludes from the competent and credible evidence and the facts found that

Based on the foregoing, the decision of the Appeals Referee must be (affirmed/ reversed/ modified). Further, the claimant must be held (disqualified) (not disqualified) from receiving unemployment insurance benefits.

NOTICE TO ALL INTERESTED PARTIES

A legal representative as defined in 04 N.C. Admin. Code 24A .0105(32) (including individuals from a third-party company serving as an employer's unemployment insurance administrator) must be a licensed attorney, or a person supervised by a licensed attorney in accordance with N.C. Gen. Stat. Ch. 84 and § 96-17(b). Notices and/or certification of attorney supervision must be in writing pursuant to 04 N.C. Admin. Code 24C .0504. Legal representation in judicial proceedings must comply with N.C. Gen. Stat. Ch. 84.

Pursuant to 04 N.C. Admin. Code 24C .0504, when a party has a legal representative, all documents or information required to be provided to the party will only be sent to the legal representative. Any information provided to a party's legal representative will have the same force and effect as if it had been sent directly to the party.

For claims filed on or after June 30, 2013, claimants are subject to repayment of benefits received from any administrative or judicial decision that is later reversed on appeal. N.C. Gen. Stat. § 96-18(g)(2).

SPECIAL NOTICE TO CLAIMANTS: If you were receiving or have previously received unemployment insurance benefits in connection with the underlying claim and this Higher Authority Decision rules you ineligible or disqualified for all or part of such benefits, you may now have an overpayment of benefits pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. § 96-18(g)(2). If an overpayment is created by this Higher Authority Decision, you will be mailed a separate Notice of Overpayment or Determination of Overpayment from the Division's Benefits Integrity/Benefit Payment Control Section. The Notice of Overpayment or Determination of Overpayment will specify, among other things, the amount of your overpayment and any penalties that apply. Please note that the only way you may contest the overpayment is to file a petition for judicial review of this Higher Authority Decision with the superior court as provided above, and in accordance with North Carolina law. In your petition, you must specify whether you are appealing (1) the issue of disqualification or eligibility and/or (2) the resulting determination that you received an overpayment of benefits.
