The Division of Employment Security has considered your petition for a waiver of overpaid benefits in the amount of $823.27 pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. 96-4(w); 04 NCAC 24B .701-.0705.

If Allowed

In reviewing a petition for an overpayment waiver, the Division considers the degree of a claimant's fault in creating the overpayment along with any other matter which shows that the collection of the overpayment would be against equity and good conscience. These issues were considered in ruling on this petition and it was determined that your petition for a waiver is ALLOWED. You will no longer be responsible for repayment of the overpayment amount listed above.

This determination constitutes the final decision of the Division with no further right of appeal.

If Disallowed

In reviewing a petition for an overpayment waiver, the Division considers the degree of a claimant's fault in creating the overpayment along with any other matter which shows that the collection of the overpayment would be against equity and good conscience.

It is concluded that you have not shown good cause for the Division to forgive the overpayment. Therefore, your petition for a waiver of the overpayment of unemployment insurance benefits is DISALLOWED. You will be responsible for repayment of the amount listed above. This determination constitutes the final decision of the Division with no further right to appeal.

If Waiver in Part

In reviewing a petition for an overpayment waiver, the Division considers the degree of a claimant's fault in creating the overpayment along with any other matter which shows that the collection of the overpayment would be against equity and good conscience. These issues were considered in ruling on this petition and it was determined that your petition for a waiver is ALLOWED IN PART. The waiver amount granted is <Granted Amt>. You will no longer be responsible for repayment of the overpayment amount. This determination constitutes the final decision of the Division with no further right of appeal.

If Dismissed

Opt 1

Your appeal of the determination that created the overpayment is under review by the Division. A petition for a waiver cannot be considered until a decision has been made on your request for an appeal. Therefore, your petition for waiver of overpayment is Dismissed.

Opt 2

The issue of the overpayment has been resolved and you are no longer overpaid. Therefore, your petition for waiver of overpayment is Dismissed.
